AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

Senator Blair Before the Investigating Committee.

Earth to Earth—Small-Pox—The Apache War—Two Persons Burned to Death at San Jose—Foreign News.

Associated Press Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Senator Blair appeared before the Foreign Affairs Committee, to-day, and began by reading a general statement in relation to the project under investigation, in effect as follows: I know nothing of membership of the Peruvian Company except President Shipherd. I do not know of any member of either House being in any way connected with it except myself, and my connection with it was purely as counsel, with no pecuniary interest whatsoever in the company and no expectation whatever of pecuniary reward. The statement then rehearsed at some length the situation of affairs in Peru and Chili, and the witness's sympathy for Peru and his desire to prevent her dismemberment, which led him to take a keen interest in the purpose and objects of the Peruvian Company.

Emerson's Funeral.

CONCORD, Mass., May 1.—The last rites over the remains of Ralph Waldo Emerson took place this afternoon. A special train from Boston brought many people thither and almost every building in town bore mourning drapery, the public buildings being heavily draped. The services at the house were conducted by Rev. W. H. Farress, of Philadelphia, and were of simple character. After the services the procession was formed and the body taken to the Unitarian Church. Judge Rockwood delivered the address. Selections from the scriptures followed and Rev. Jas. Freeman Clarke delivered a long and interesting address upon the life and works of Emerson. A prayer and benediction closed the exercises in the church. The coffin was borne to the cemetery where Rev. D. Haskins, Episcopal clergyman and member of the family, read the Episcopal burial service and the body was lowered into the grave. The people and clergymen then united in reciting the Lord's prayer.

Small Pox at Sea.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—The steamer City of Peking, from Panama and way ports, arrived here this evening and was placed under quarantine. After leaving Panama a case of small pox was developed. The patient was landed at Mazatlan and the steamer proceeded on her voyage. No new cases were developed, but the authorities will quarantine the steamer for a few days awaiting results.

The steamer Orizoba left morning fo Los Angeles with the following passengers: H H Maynard, wife and two sons, Maude Maynard, J Gluckman, Miss Burk, J Langelot, J Rooney, Miss Mattie Johnson, M Orcott.

The Apache War.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—A party of ten or twelve bucks and fifteen squaws and children were seen in the Burro mountains yesterday afternoon. They had about thirty head of loose stock besides their ponies. They were on the old trail leading south from the Gila through the Burros and running close by Knight's ranch. No depredations as yet are reported from the Burros. Company G, Twenty-third Infantry, numbering forty-two men, under command of Lieutenant Clark, arrived here this morning from Fort Bliss, and is awaiting orders. Three companies of infantry of the Twenty-third and one of the Twenty-first will arrive here this evening. Corporal Hittinger, of Company C, Fourth Cavalry, has just arrived from the Los Animas valley, near the Chiricahua border. He left Forsyth's command three days ago, bringing in a private in the same command who recently became insane. Corporal Hittinger reports Forsyth, with seven companies of troops, on the trail and that he will follow the Indians into old Mexico. He also reports Forsyth as saying he will follow the trail as long and as far as it can be found. A little livelier work while he had the Indians corralled in Doubtful and Horseshoe canyons, one week ago to-day, might have been productive of better results.

Fatal Fire at San Jose.

SAN JOSE, May 1.—The residence of John Brett at this place was partially destroyed by fire early this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Brett were not awakened by the flames until the house was completely enveloped and every means of escape cut off. As quickly as the fire became extinguished the firemen searched for the bodies of the unfortunate inmates. They were found but horribly burned, and charred beyond recognition. The fire is supposed to have originated from the upsetting and explosion of a lamp.

The Other Crank in the Field.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Mrs. Scoville spoke on her brother's crime last night to a very small audience at an uptown theatre.

One More Unfortunate.

NEW YORK, May 1.—William Godfrey Kruger committed suicide to-day. Poverty was the cause. He was the inventor of a flying machine which he claimed would carry him to Europe in twenty four hours. Kruger was a school teacher for ten years in San Francisco.

The Stalwarts and Independents.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 1.—Interviews to-day with a majority of the members of the Stalwart and Independent Republican Committees, appointed to harmonize the party in this State, indicate no basis of settlement of the existing difference will be reached at the meeting to-morrow.

Ravisher Lynched.

CLEVELAND, O., April 30.—Frank Fisher, a negro ravisher, was lynched at Galena at 4 o'clock this afternoon by a mob of about 200 men.

Troops for Arizona

ST. PAUL, May 1.—The Seventh Infantry, under Gen. John Gibbon, with headquarters at Fort Snelling, are ordered to hold themselves in readiness to proceed at once to Arizona to take part in the Apache campaign. The Fourth Infantry and Third Cavalry are under like orders.

Captain Jack Killed.

CHICAGO, May 1.—News was received at General Sheridan's headquarters today from Fort Washakiet, Wyoming Territory, of the killing of Captain Jack, of the White River Utes. Jack was imprisoned there, and in attempting to escape killed a sergeant. As he was running away the guard fired after him, and he fell at the first shot.

FROM OVER THE SEA.

The Land League—Notes from Russia—London News.

LONDON, April 30.—Rumors of the release of Parnell, Dillon and O'Kelly immediately spread and gained fresh currency when it became known yesterday that the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland had resigned. Earl Spencer, who succeeds him, will remain a Cabinet Minister, which Earl Cowper was not, Earl Spencer's appointment is understood to signify the reorganization of the Administration in Ireland, especially the overhauling of Dublin Castle. To-day's rumor goes much further, implying nothing less than Mr. Foster's practical withdrawal from the immediate superintence of Irish affairs, taking charge of Ireland in Parliament, but returning no more to Ireland.

A railway employe named Albert Young was arrested for threatening the life of the Queen. He will be taken to London. It is believed the threat was bravado.

Hanlan won the race with Trickett to-day by four lengths with the greatest ease. Hanlan's time was 27 minutes, 38 seconds. Trickett's time was 29 minutes, 33 seconds.

The full rigged ship Van is ashore at Swanzea, All on board were drowned. The gale was very heavy.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 30.—Lieutenant Danenhower and party have arrived at Moscow. All are well.

Another mine has been discovered on the Moscow railroad. One is also reported to have been found under the Imperial Pavilion at Moscow.

The Times says: In appealing to the Czar on behalf of the Jews in Russia, the American Legation at St. Petersburg will speak for the heart of Europe as well as for the United States.

The Free Press (Vienna), reports fresh outrages on the Jews in Russia, and says, in spite of the orders from St. Petersburg for the prompt punishment of their persecutors, that several notorious offenders have been released from custody.

THE MARTINEZ RIOT.

Particulars of the Affair—Italian Fishermen.

MARTINEZ, April 26.—A mob attacked a Chinese house at nine o'clock this evening, throwing the inmates from the second-story window and tearing down the building. Three of the Chinamen are badly hurt, and several others wounded. Two of them will probably die. The attack was a cowardly and contemptible one, perpetrated upon defenseless men, and meets the severest denunciation of the people of Martinez. The mob is unidentified at the present time.

The evicted Chinamen arrived from Martinez at Oakland Pier this afternoon at half past twelve o'clock, on their way to the Chinese quarters in San Francisco. They comprised a motley crowd of 50 Mongolians, many of them shoeless, hatless and coatless, indicating that they had left their quarters in Martinez with considerable celerity, standing not on the order of their going, but going at once. One Chinaman had been shot through the arm, and several others had their heads bandaged, while others limped painfully, leaning upon stout sticks. They all showed signs of exceeding rough usage and none of them had as yet recovered from the fright incident upon their eviction. One Chinaman who spoke good English stated that the mob who attacked them was composed of Italian fishermen engaged in catching salmon in Sad Pablo Bay. A short time since a fish canning establishment was established in Martinez, and a large number of Chinamen were employed, who, the Italians alleged, while pursuing their fishing operations, cut and destroyed the nets of white fishermen. This was the alleged cause of the riot. The Italians, gathered together, and marched to the building used by the cannery, driving the Chinese out at the muzzle of the revolver, and endeavoring by means of ropes, to wreck this structure. The Chinaman scattered, but not before a number of them had been badly beaten.

Peculiar Missiles.

At a battle of Groveton, Stonewall Jackson tried an experience which nearly frightened a Federal division out of their boots. Bars of railroad iron were cut into foot lengths and fired from some of his heaviest guns, and the noise these missiles made as they went sailing through the air was a sort of a cross between the shriek of a woman and the bray of a mule. The Federals listened in wonder at the first few which banged through the tree trops, and presently one of the pieces fell in front of a Pennsylvania regiment. A captain stepped forward to inspect it, and after turning it over rushed to his Colonel with the news:

"Colonel, those infernal Rebs are firing railroad iron at us!"

"No!"

"They are for a fact!"

"Captain, advance your company to that ridge and deploy, and the minute you find Jackson is getting ready to fire freight cars at us send me word. I don't propose to have my regiment mashed into the ground when it can just as well be decently exterminated in the regular way!"—Detroit Free Press.

A dozen years ago Mr. Longfellow wrote to a young student, who had asked him for a rule which might serve as a guide in writing: "It is difficult to give advice, even when we know persons and positions. With strangers it is impossible. I can only say in general terms: Be yourself; work out your own individuality."

English and French doctors don't agree as to what causes sea-sickness. We thought it was caused by going on the water.—Detroit Free Press.

MOB LAW.

Our esteemed Democratic contemporary, the Herald, says the mobbing of Chinamen at Martinez, this State: is "a pregnant hint of the real troubles which are ahead on the Pacific Coast and in the nation at large, should the Chinese curse not be abated." And then, as if speaking with the authority of a leader, it points a finger at the capitalists of the East, and thus warns them of the consequences that will follow the exercise on their part of the great privileges of Americans — the liberty of speech and of the ballot. We quote the language of our contemporary:

"Serene as is the confidence of the Massachusetts capitalist in his power to decide all questions of labor in a peremptory and supercilious way, if he were wise he would take counsel by the Martinez episode."

We can but remark that holding the circumstances of a mob approvingly before a people and threatening them with repetitions thereof, is not commendable, and we are charitable enough to suppose our friend did not fully consider the force and effect of his language, nor weigh the consequences of the act.

It is a misfortune that the lawlessness at Martinez transpired at this time, when it is desirable to show to the world that we are disposed to have regard to the common humanities of life, and we fear it will not help win the sympathies of Massachusetts capitalists, or of laborers either, to try to frighten the one by threats of mob violence, or insult the others by an intimation that they are such stuff as mobs are made of.

It is the enactment of such scenes as the mob at Martinez, the incendiary language that incites to them, and the commendations their perpetrators have received from the press of California, that we are indebted for much of the sentiment of opposition to Chinese immigration restriction in the Eastern States. The strangling and hanging of twenty-one innocent Chinamen by the roughs of this city several years ago, and the later mobbing of washhouses and threats of violence in San Francisco, have given us a character abroad it is not pleasant to encounter. A reputation for ruffianism is not at all likely to pave a way for a kindly consideration of our wants. While Kearney and Kalloch, and the organs which support them, are permitted unreproved to fill the air with their threats of exterminating an innocent people whom our policy and laws have invited to come here, we certainly cannot hope to have a belief exist that we are much better than ruffians, and will make slow work of revolutionizing public sentiment in our favor.

In handling the Chinese Question it becomes us as men and as American citizens to have regard to all the amenities of life, and neither sink our manhood nor disgrace our citizenship. We cannot justify lawlessness. The Chinaman is a man, and is therefore entitled to his rights of property and personal protection. All this we are in duty bound to accord to him; but being of another nationality, we have a right to say whether he may remove into our country to reside or not. And being here, we certainly have a legal and moral right in all our business relations to discriminate in favor of our own countrymen and kindred, and decline to give aught to the Mongolian. Our legitimate weapons are exclusion to those without, and non-intercourse with those within. With these instrumentalities we can work and do no violence to any legal or moral obligation, and we can win our case and save our people from any of the evils threatened by a too liberal immigration of cheap labor. Let any other instrumentalities be discountenanced, and more especially let the iron hand of justice speedily crush out the spirit of lawlessness and violence wherever it may show itself, and let the public indelibly brand those who would countenance it.

The San Francisco Bulletin gives publicity to the rumor that the Southern Pacific Railroad Company is to build a branch of their road from Newhall to Santa Barbara. This is good news if true, and we hope it is correct. If true it will probably head off the narrow-guage road headed southward from San Luis Obispo.

The steamer Stirling Castle, built on the river Clyde, in Scotland, has made 21 3-10 miles per hour, said to be the fastest steamboat time on record. Her length is 430 feet, breadth 50 feet, and depth 33 feet. The hull is of steel, and boilers of the same material.

BEGGING FOR CRUMBS.

There has been a most astonishing let down in the demands and expectations of the Democracy within a few days. When the news of the veto was received, in high glee every one of the unterrified threw up his hat at the prospect of sweeping the State and the country under the reaction of public sentiment. But now that Republican pluck has carried a new bill through Congress, and one which will be signed, some of the exponents of Democracy begin to beg for a few crumbs of the Republican feast—some little thing, anything to help out the party, in payment for the service rendered by certain Democratic Representatives and Senators in working the bill through. It would appear that the idea of a patriotic effort in aid of any cause is unknown to a Democrat. He wants his salary, and all the donations and perquisites, and then begs for some special gifts for the benefit of his party. Magnanimous Democracy—thy patriots are "worthy of their hire."

NOTES, ETC.

In 1,785 fires in New York, 70 per cent were the result of carelessness. Eleven were proven to be of incendiary origin.

On Thursday, April 6th, there were landed at Castle Garden, New York, 6481 immigrants. The following day enough more landed to make the number 10,000.

An angle brick has been patented for obtuse-angle structures, the bricks having lap joints. All cutting of brick is avoided and the angle may be changed as desired.

The Northern Pacific Railroad has reached well into the Yellowstone valley, twenty miles west of the mouth of the Little Rosebud river. It will be at Bozeman, Montana, by September next.

Capt. Fred Norman proposes to attempt to cross the Atlantic in a row boat 15 feet long by 4 feet wide and from 2 to 2½ feet deep. He thinks he can make the voyage in 100 days.

An Italian professor proposes a disinfectant solution composed of chloride of lime, camphor, and glycerine. It is said this will arrest the petrefaction of animal bodies, and is highly commended by the London Medical Record.

And now comes a new use for the Telephone. Count Hugo von Engenberg, a German scientist, buries a transmitter, properly attached to the wires, in the earth and listens for the sound of gurgling waters. If he finds water, why, it is well.

For some years, one Keely, of Philadelphia, has been promising to astonish the world with an astonishing power producer to b known as the Keely motor. The best authority in the country has persisted in declaring him a humbug, but he managed to organize a company, nevertheless, and has bled his stockholders until they cry "hold, enough," and have sued him to give them the secret of his invention. And the court has ordered he shall do so. And this will probably expose the delusion.

Our own Poet, Mr. Kercheval, in his little poem entitled "The Padres of Old," evidently sympathizes with the Reid side of the Aborigines history controversy. We have listened to Reid, Col. Warner, and an anonymous correspondent, and now it is but fair to give friend Kercheval a hearing. We find the gem in the Reminiscences of a Ranger:—

"They were merry old fellows in Cossack and gown,
Those jolly old knights of the smooth-shaven crown,
Those lion-souled, eagle-eyed Padres of Spain,
Who lorded it grandly o'er mountain and plain;
As ready with fair Senorita to dance
As grant absolution, or balance a lance;
Whose churches and missions impreguable stood,
And did to the heathen what seemed to them good;
They brought up proud sinners with sharp, sudden pulls
And lassoed their converts like broncos and bulls,
Or gathered confessions from red, rosy lips,
To hoard as the treasure the honey bee sips
With hands that were ready and hearts that were bold:
How I envy those clean-shaven Padres of old.

With fair purple vineyards and wide-spreading flocks
They sighed not for riches, they cared not for "stocks"—
Not "Comstocks," though they bellowed and gored,"
And fought for a "rise" at the Devil's "Big Board,"
With a genuine reckless "Bonanza King's," greed,
And cornered the stock in eternity's "lead,"
Refusing all offers of Satan to sell,
"Salvations" sure stock, though "shorted" on h—l,
And played for the kingdom, with Satan and Sin,
When souls were the "divvys" and gathered them in:
With stores of frijoles and flagons of wine,
They craved not the treasures of city or wine;
With princely possessions to have and to hold,
They were bully old fellows—those Padres of old."

THE SHOE FITS.

Only the Wounded Bird Flutters—A Disclaimer.

It would seem from the flutterings that some one was hit by the little squib in the TIMES of Saturday morning, which referred to young men insulting ladies about the postoffice. Two communications were received denying that such has been the case, but the denials go for naught, as the truth of the item can be substantiated by half a dozen young ladies who have received direct insults. And now comes a postal card which reads as follows;

LOS ANGELES, April 29.

An article appears in to-day's paper stating that some young men loitering near the postoffice, were in the habit of insulting ladies as they passed. Suspicion will at once fall on the young men of the Business College. So we wish to say in our own defence, that none of us with the exception of ——— have been guilty of insulting or noticing any people who chanced to pass.

YOUNG MEN OF THE BUSINESS COLLEGE.

It was not the intention of the TIMES to cast any reflections on the young men of the Business College, for as a rule they are gentlemen. But we wished to warn those who were indulging in the ungentlemanly actions, that their conduct was being noted, and if persisted in, would bring them trouble. If the warning is observed they will escape some police court notoriety, and the object of the TIMES will have been accomplished.

Said the wise old lady, with solemn truthfulness: "If we could once see our lives as God sees 'em, it would skeer us 'most to death."

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

Arthur's Message Asking for More Power Sat Down Upon.

A Train Robber Escapes—Reports of an Indian Battle—Troops from Cheyenne for Arizona.

Associated Press Dispatches.]

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Senator Edmunds from Judiciary Committee reported back in relation to the President's message about lawlessness in Arizona that it was the opinion of the Committee that additional legislation is not essential to empower the President to suppress lawlessness in Territories; that he can under existing laws notify lawless gangs to disperse and cease disturbance, and if they do not obey this proclamation, the President can then use such force as he may deem necesssary, including the army, to suppress lawlessness and restore order. This was assented to, and the committee discharged. Townsend, of Illinois, offered in the House a joint resolution to repeal all provisions of existing treaties with China permitting emigration of Chinese laborers to the United States. The House refused the second reading by a vote of 100 to 25. Page, of California, being the only Republican who voted to have a second reading. Townsend then said he offered the resolution to show that only one Republican had courage to favor it.

A GOOD RESOLUTION KILLED.

Townsend, of Illinois, moved to suspend the rules, and pass the following joint resolution:

Resolved, That the President be authorized and requested to immediately open correspondence with the government of China for the purpose of securing a change or abrogation of all stipulations in existing treaties which permit emigration to the United States, except for travel, education and foreign commerce.

The House by 100 nays to 62 ayes refused the second demand for suspension.

LET THE MATTER REST.

The contemplated effort to call up the Chinese bill in the House of Representatives for concurrence in the Senate amendments was not made to-day, there being no favorable opportunity for asking unanimous consent, and it being also a matter of doubtful expediency to force the amendments under a suspension of rules. In view of these considerations, and of the large number of names already placed on Speaker Keifer's list, with promises for recognition in their order. This afternoon it was deemed advisable to let the matter rest until to-morrow.

Particulars of Capt. Jack's Death.

CHICAGO, May 1.—Some time ago the Indian Department requested the military to arrest Captain Jack, of the White River Utes, who was in the vicinity of Fort Washakie, Wisconsin. The arrest was made April 29th. Shortly after he attempted to escape and fled to a tepee near by, where he secured a carbine and killed Sergeant Richard Casey, of the Third Cavalry. A mountain howitzer was then fired into the tepee, killing Jack instantly. Captain Jack was a notorious leader in the Thornbergh and Meeker massacres, and was a very dangerous and very bad Indian.

Troops for Arizona.

CHEYENNE, Wyoming Ter., May 1.—The Third Cavalry, under General Brackett, consisting of twelve companies, leave Wyoming to-morrow for the Indian war in Arizona. Special dispatches say it is probable that the White River Utes will create trouble over the killing of Chief Jack. The removal of the Third Cavalry to Arizona lessens the protection of settlers in Wyoming and Colorado.

Burned to Death.

ARTHUR, Ontario, May 1.—The residence of Andrew Fleming was burned this morning. Two children aged one and two years were burned to death. Mr. and Mrs. Fleming were seriously burned.

Train Robbers' Escape.

KEOKUK, Iowa, May 1.—A Constitution special from Madison, Iowa, says: Polk Wells, the train robber, escaped from the penitentiary this morning, with two accomplices named Fitzgerald and Cook, by chloroforming their attendant in the hospital and breaking through the iron roof and overpowering the hospital guard. John Elder, one of the latter, died from the effects of his injuries and the chloroform. Pursuit has been organized, but no trace has yet been found of the escaped men.

An Indian Battle.

LORDSBURG, N. M., May 1.—Dispatches just received here report an engagement on the 28th ult., between Captain Tupper's command and the Indians at a point twenty-five miles south of Cloverdale, in this county, and near the line of old Mexico. Fifteen Indians are reported to have been killed. Tupper's loss was four killed. Capt. Brady, with five companies of the Fifteenth and Twenty-third Infantry, will leave here to-night for Richmond on the Gila river, thirty miles northwest of here. Capt. Goodall with two companies of the Twenty-third Infantry has been ordered to remain here as a guard.

Another Murder.

REDWOOD CITY, May 1.—Last night, at a ranch near Searsville, Ramon Mojika shot and instantly killed Rosario Santander. Both parties were in liquor. An old feud had existed between the men.

New York Nihilists.

NEW YORK, April 30.—An attempt was made on the lives of William H. Vanderbilt and Cyrus W. Field in New York on Saturday, by sending them explosives through the mails. The scheme miscarried through one of the packages exploding prematurely, while the mail was in transit. The explosion occurred in a car and set the mail-bag on fire, but it was promptly extinguished without much damage. It was the Vanderbilt package that exploded, and the one addressed to Field was plunged into a bucket of water and it was found to consist of pasteboard box covered with gaudy flowers and pictures, and had a small drawer in it from which depended a string, as, it is supposed, for the purpose of drawing it open and causing an explosion. Inside of the box was found a tin canister containing about a half pound of powder and a glass jar containing a white powder and a liquid, believed to be some kind of explosive, but what it was none of the Postoffice officials could say.

Orders Countermanded.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—Last week General McDowell received orders from Washington to dispatch three companies of infantry to Arizona, in addition to those already on the way. To-day a telegram has been received countermanding the order.

On a Strike.

CINCINNATI, O., May 1.—Carpenters have struck for fifty cents more per day, and building is stopped in consequence.

Municipal Election.

STOCKTON, May 1.—The City election passed off quietly. A fair vote was polled, and at this hour both parties claim a victory. Probabilities indicate that portions of both tickets are elected.

Boycotted.

The Compton saloon closed up last Saturday morning for lack of patronage, and the people thereabouts greatly rejoice.

Sentenced.

Nicolas Couch was yesterday sentenced by Judge Sepulveda to four years in the State Prison, for the murder of Smith Crabtree at El Monte January 3d. The jury impaneled to sit on the case of his insanity found him sane.

An Iowa youth who recently applied for a marriage license forgot his sweetheart's name.

If a Kansas Sheriff spells five words out of twenty right in making his reports he is good for a second term.

A good cigar is known by its flavor, and nothing increases that flavor to a good judge of "the weed," more than the knowledge that his cigar was made by white men and smoked by white men. C. C. Cheesebrough, at No. 29 Spring street, keeps none but the best white labor cigars. See his ad. in "New To-day."

A gentleman from Detroit, Michigan, is now in the city looking up the inducements offered for a paper box manufactory. The TIMES ventures the assertion that there is "money in it" if run properly. A large number of the merchants in this city interviewed on the subject of manufactures voluntarily referred to the imperative demand for a paper box factory and a paper mill in Los Angeles.

Grand Larceny.

Mrs. Refugio Mallachowitz was arrested yesterday on a charge of grand larceny. Mr. Mallachowitz promptly had Mrs. Mallachowitz arrested and arraigned before Justice Fisher, and she was let go on her own recognizance till to-day at 1 P. M., when the examination will take place.

UNDER WAY.

Meeting of the Society for Promotion of Manufactures.

An Interesting Meeting—The President Occupies the Chair—Committees Appointed.

The first regular meeting of the Society for Promotion of Manufactures was held in Union Hall last evening. The President, A. H. Judson, on taking the chair, thanked the society for the honor conferred upon him; that he heartily sympathized with this movement and believed it was capable of accomplishing much good in the upbuilding of Los Angeles. He was afraid, at the same time, that his many duties would prevent him from continuing in office, as he feared he could not devote to it the attention required. While he believed that Los Angeles can never become a great manufacturing center, he was confident that a vast number of raw materials existed in the country subservient to it that could be utilized, and thereby create large manufactories here that would assist materially in the growth of the city. Nine years ago nearly everything was imported to Los Angeles except fruits, and nearly all of them. Now we are almost self-sustaining.

The Secretary read the minutes of last meeting, after which four additional members signed the Constitution, making a total of seventeen.

After considerable discussion of the proper method of classifying the work, it was moved and seconded that the chairman appoint a committee of three to collect statistics with reference to the advantages of Los Angeles as a manufacturing point, and report the same at the next regular meeting. Geo. T. Hanly, E. A. Edwards, and J. M. Davies were appointed such a committee.

The Secretary presented a bill for $4.50 due to the city for gas. It was moved and seconded that the Secretary petition the City Council to donate the use of the hall and light to the Society.

E. A. Edwards suggested that the committee appointed to collect statistics examine into the water power available in this city; he believed that by piping the water of the Los Angeles river a few miles above the city, a fall of two hundred feet could be obtained—sufficient to run every manufacturing industry in the city. In recent conversation with a gentleman from Philadelphia, here for his health, who is engaged in manufacturing engines and locomotives in that city, the gentleman remarked favorably of the awakened interest in manufactures and signified his intention of engaging in the manufacture of machinery, locomotives, etc., here if his health improved sufficiently to enable him to do so. The lack of interest in this movement on the part of business men was then discussed and the suggestion was made that a committee be appointed to call on the business men and urge them to become members of this society. On motion J. M. Davies was appointed a committee of one to secure the names of business men as members.

LA MASCOTTE.

The Course of True Love Vividly Portrayed.

The San Francisco Opera Troupe played this charming opera last night in Turnverein hall. The story of humble lovers faithful to their vows amid courtly scenes, was brilliantly rendered. Edward Barrett as Rocco was as the best of the wine at the last of the feast. The troupe now go to San Bernardino, and will appear here again next Saturday, when they will reproduce Girofle-Girofla, at the 2 P. M. matinee, and La Mascotte in the evening, Los Angeles has testified amply her appreciation of the talent displayed by artists of this troupe in the substantial manner in which she has filled their purses with the needed wherewithal, and will likewise greet them again.

No Mas Mostrador.

The young gentlemen and ladies who performed the play of "No Mas Mostrador" a short time since, have been so frequently importuned to repeat the entertainment that they have consented and will again render the play on Thursday evening next, May 4th, the day preceding the Mexican National celebration, which occurs on the 5th. After the performance, which will close at 10:30, they will give a dance until 12, when a grand chorus will render the Mexican national air and usher in the celebration. That repeated requests have been made that "No Mas Mostrador" should be repeated is encomium enough on the performers. Those who attend will find the entertainment a most enjoyable one.

Summer Suitings.

J. Birnbaum, the merchant tailor, 47 Main street, under the Cosmopolitan Hotel, has just received an elegant assortment of summer suitings from Philadelphia. These goods comprise the latest and best styles and have been carefully selected with the view of supplying the demand for first-class goods. The public are requested to call and examine these desirable patterns before giving their orders. See card in "New To-day."

Special Notice.

The double column announcement of the City of Paris appears in this issue. Men's Youths, Boys and Children's Suits are offered in variety and style unsurpassed and at prices which defy competition. Gents' Furnishing Goods of every description are also to be obtained at this mammoth establishment, comprising the latest novelties of the season. This enterprising firm are always at the front.

Murdered by Hoodlums.

On the night of the 24th instant, there were two Indians murdered at the Indian settlement near Santa Ynez, in Santa Barbara County. Their names were Jose Dolores and Alberto, and they were brothers. Three or four boys out on a spree, went to their house and started to break down the door. When the brothers came out to see about the disturbance, they were set upon and literally cut to pieces. It is pronounced a cold blooded murder of the very worst type, The names of the murderers are John O'Brien, Jose Jolenson, Jose Castro. Francisco Lugo, and Lugardo Herman. —Ventura Signal, April 29.

Police Pickings.

Business is getting lively once more in police circles, twelve arrests having been made since Saturday.

James Kelleher, a night watchman at the depot, was arrested last night for insanity.

Juan Lopez was arrested yesterday for firing off a pistol inside the city limits.

PASADENA HEARD FROM.

The Boycotting Goes On—A Novel Sight—A Baggage Line—Personal, Etc.

The people here, that is most of them, have come to the conclusion that after reading in your columns the results of certain investigators, they can get along without John's vegetables. At our house we have not had a vegetable in the house for a whole week, and I know of many more. And still the good work goes on.

We witnessed a novel sight the other day. Mr. G. W. Dyer was engaged to build a chimney for a gentleman—a new comer. The time set for him, Mr. Dyer, to appear on the scene, came round. He was exactly on time, but the lumber had not arrived with which to build the house. Mr. Dyer was in a hurry and could not come again, and was about to throw up the job, when an idea struck him. He took an exact measurement of the house, got the location of the chimney and built it independent of the house, and now they are building the house up around it—housing in the chimney, as it were.

There will soon be a freight, baggage and express line run between this place and Los Angeles, a thing very much needed.

Pasadena is settling up very fast. There is an effort made by a certain party to get land for a saloon here. If he succeeds we will have to have a jail as a matter of course, and then we will be a town.

C. C. Case starts to-day on foot for Santa Barbara on business.

CHINATOWN.

The Proposed Ordinance Contradicts the Treaty Only.

A Lazy Committee Neglects its Work—Chinatown a Nuisance from a Health Standpoint and Must Go.

The following is the message of City Attorney Hazzard submitted to the Council April 22d:

In regard to the instruction of your Honorable body to draft an ordinance excluding Chinese from the general fire limits of the city, I would say that ordinance drawn as you suggest would be invalid and could not be enforced. Legislation of this character is contrary to the Constitution of the United States, and indirectly in conflict with the treaty entered into between the United States in November, 1880, the second section of which reads as follows: "As to the Chinese now in this country, they shall be allowed to go and come of their own free will, and shall be accorded all the rights, privileges, immunities and exemptions which are accorded to the citizens and subjects of the most favored nations."

Justice Field, in the case of Ho Ah Kow versus Matthew Nunan, in the Circuit Court of the United States, and which case is known as the "celebrated queue ordinance," says: "But in our own country, hostile and discriminating legislation by a State against persons of any class, sect, creed or nation, in whatever form it may be expended is forbidden by the Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution; * * * It further declares that no State shall deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person the equal protection of the law, * * * that no charges or burden shall be laid upon him which are not equally borne by others, and that in the administration of criminal justice he shall suffer for his offences no greater in different punishment.

In the case of Baker versus City of Portland, third volume Pacific Coast Land Journal 471 Judge Deady says:

"This treaty * * is the supreme law of the land, and the courts are bound to enforce it fully and fairly * * and with that treaty no State or municipality thereof can interfere."

It will thus be plain that no one could be convicted for the violation of the ordinance proposed. It would only result in useless litigation and costs to the city.

If the Chinese residents are guilty of maintaining a nuisance in any part of the city, and there seems to be no doubt of it, I am of the opinion that there is authority to abate the same, and with your permission, will confer with the committee appointed on that behalf, and with them will devise some means to relieve that portion of the city of the nuisance that there exists, and will report our action to the next meeting of your body [which was not done. REP.].

Others matters which have been submitted to me have been delayed owing to my engagement in city cases now pending in the Supreme Court.

I am respectfully yours,

H. T. HAZARD,
City Attorney.

Are the special committees going to do their duty this week, or are they going to "lay it over," (kill) it?—EDITOR TIMES.

EDITOR TIMES: Having heard frequent and unreserved expressions from prominent Republicans of preference for J. E. Hollenbeck, of this city, as the most capable and desirable person yet suggested as Republican candidate for member of Congress for this district, I desire in the interest of the party to thus publicly suggest his name in this connection, earnestly believing with many others, that if Mr. Hollenbeck can be induced to become a candidate, it will be found that he possesses not alone the merit of personal popularity and availability, but that he also possesses more of the elements of the kind of representative in Congress now wanted by our people than any other man in Southern California. Truly yours,

REPUBLICAN.

Praise Service.

The praise service at the Methodist Church last Sunday evening was very interesting. Professor Fiske sang one of his bass solos. The Smith sisters were charming in a quartette. The vocal and instrumental music was first-class. Rev. Chase evidently believes in making music to the Lord like David of old.

FROM SANTA ANA.

A Batch of News from Our Brilliant Neighbor.

APRIL 28, 1882.

EDITOR TIMES: Santa Ana items this week are rather scarce, yet the usual stir and hum of business is noticeable on the streets.

With so many other improvements that are being made we hear no talk of a new hotel. Perhaps some live landlord could make a good investment here in that line. The town is growing so rapidly that a more commodious hotel than we now have would certainly pay.

Rev. Mr. Petty, of Texas, has been shaking up the dry bones of Santa Ana this week He represents the M. E. Church, South, and is a very forcible and logical speaker. His sermon Sunday upon "Church Unity" was listened to by a large and appreciative audience; and from the profound attention which prevailed it was evident that the speaker was driving the truth home to many a heart.

Santa Ana can boast of an interesting Band of Hope, which meets every Sunday at 3 P. M., in the M. E. Church South. Last Sunday the church was thronged with boys and girls who have enlisted in the very morning of their lives in the "great temperance reform," and with Mrs. E. Dunbar as their earnest and efficient superintendent we may expect much good to be done.

On Wednesday the celestial sons of the Flowery Kingdom, who were making brick for Mr. Grouard, shook the dust of the brickyard from their feet, and, without a moment's notice to their employer, "lit out" for Los Angeles. Their places were filled by white men inside of six hours, and the work goes on as serenely as before. Mr. Grouard says he hopes they will never stop till they reach China. He further says that his motto hereafter shall be, "No Chinese need apply."

A meeting of the citizens of Santa Ana was held in the M. E. Church South, on last Monday evening, to consider the necessary steps to be taken in the Sunday law case, which was tried here a few days ago, and which was transferred to San Juan. It was agreed that if the people are beaten in the next trial, to carry the case up to the Supreme Court; and it was further agreed that all the expenses of the case are to be met by the law-abiding citizens of this place. A paper was circulated in the audience and received twenty-seven signatures of persons who agree to bear an equal share of the expense. The names of several of the solid men of the place are attached. Many funny things regarding the recent case came up in the meeting.

Two or three different parties stated that they had seen a "whisky bottle" passing around among the jurors while they were deliberating upon their verdict, and the truth of that statement can be vouched for by your correspondent. Is it any wonder that six of the jury should have been for acquittal? It was further stated, by one who knew, that a juror had been bought that very evening for a drink of whisky. Surely "for ways that are dark and for tricks that are vain the poison venders are peculiar."
